

Ascension St. Vincent

Jonathan Nalli

Jonathan Nalli serves as Senior Vice President of Ascension and Ministry Market Executive (MME) of Ascension St. Vincent in Indiana. Founded by the Daughters of Charity in 1881, Ascension St. Vincent has 24 hospital locations and is comprised of quaternary and tertiary facilities, critical access hospitals, specialty centers and a multi-specialty physician group. Ascension is the nation's largest Catholic and nonprofit health system and a leader in medical excellence.

Mr. Nalli has driven positive changes in Indiana that are being modeled across all of Ascension, including a multidisciplinary command center, proactive recruitment, physician entrepreneurship and the transformation of surgical experiences. These initiatives have contributed to exemplary retention rates and increased productivity. The Ascension Mission – to serve the poor and vulnerable – has served as inspiration for Mr. Nalli while establishing new objectives for finance, board member engagement and community involvement. Under Mr. Nalli's leadership and integration of 24 independent hospitals into a true network of care, Ascension St. Vincent has become one of the largest and most respected employers in Indiana, known for data-driven analytics and solutions focused on improving the quality and cost of healthcare.

Mr. Nalli came to Ascension St. Vincent in 2014, after a 15-year career with Community Health Systems, where he served as an executive of multiple markets within the national health system. As CEO he focused on the growth of a comprehensive physician network and supervised the development of new sites, as well as significant capital construction and renovation projects.

Mr. Nalli was named to the Times of Northwest Indiana "20 Under 40" list in 2008 and honored as an "Up & Comer" in 2018 by Modern Healthcare, the leader in healthcare business news, research and data. Honorees are recognized as the industry's rising stars who have made significant contributions in the areas of healthcare administration, management or policy.

Mr. Nalli graduated from the University of Kentucky with a Bachelor of Health Sciences in Health Administration and earned his Master of Business Administration from Drexel University in Philadelphia. He and his wife, Cathleen, reside in Indianapolis with their four children.
